News From the Brotherhood

Again, the Brotherhood was honored and pleased to have had the opportunity to once again lead the ushering efforts for Emanuel at the High Holy Day services. We are looking forward to another dynamic, challenging, thought-provoking, service-filled, fun, and tasty year.

The year started with two events, the Emanuel Picnic and the Brotherhood Kick-Off Party. The honorees for the Kick-Off this time were our friends and leaders, Bob and Audrey Morris. It was, once again, a great success, not only because of having the opportunity to chat in some depth with Bob and Audrey, but also because there was a terrific mix of Brotherhood members attending. Besides the veterans and the main stays who can always be counted on to participate, there were a number of new members in attendance. As always, Bob and Audrey rose to the opportunity. They shared stories from their early years at Emanuel and with each other. They also had some words of wisdom for the newest members and they, in turn, responded with questions and ideas of their own. Of course, Bob and Audrey had many more stories and insights to share on subjects that ranged from moral and ethical responsibilities to financial responsibilities, from the challenges and joys in helping to lead Emanuel over the years, and from the mission we share with the people of Israel to the mission we share with members of the business and other communities to respect and appreciate each other. Topping off this get together was a fabulous and very tasty brunch prepared by our own favorite Emanuel chefs, Mark Warner and Brian Lisk.

The Emanuel Picnic turned out to need a change of venue and reschedule. The original date was postponed due to the storm of the century. Since we had not arranged to get kayaks, we rescheduled the picnic to take place on the first day of Religious School at the beach next to Emanuel. There were fun and prizes for all.

The Brotherhood is looking forward to continuing the year with a fantastic mix of events, discussions, and opportunities to serve Emanuel.

The new calendars for the entire year are now available in the lobby.
